Speaker: Prof. Rita Jordan

BSc, MSc, MA, PhD, C Psychol, OBE

Emeritus Professor in Autism Studies,

Autism Centre for Education and Research,

School of Education, University of Birmingham, UK

Honorary Advisor, SAHK, Hong Kong

Emeritus Professional Rita Jordan of Birmingham University

Emeritus Professor Rita Jordan has much experience in the education field. She had taught in mainstream and special schools and had been Deputy Principal for a school for children on the autism spectrum for 9 years. She also taught special needs, language development, clinical linguistics, education, and cognitive science in higher education. From 1993, she developed and ran a range of professional development programmes in autism studies (including a web-based one) at the University of Birmingham. She has written about and researched many aspects of autism and has been involved in training events, consultations and conferences all over the world. With her rich knowledge and experience in dealing with ASD, we believe the seminar will be a fruitful and enjoyable experience to all attendants.
