

【課程已經滿額】

SAHK
香港耀能協會

One-Day Workshop on Home Modification

Course Code: AE-19B-04
HKOTA-O-05-19-0026

Introduction

This workshop is co-organized with the Special Interest Group (SIG) in Housing of the Hong Kong Occupational Therapy Association (HKOTA). This workshop equips occupational therapists with necessary skills and techniques in home modification to accommodate for the changing needs of the elderly or disabled in order to enable aging in place as well as independence for persons with disabilities, regardless of age.

Objectives

- To acquire knowledge and skills in assessing the needs of clients of different age groups and of conditions of varying severity.
- To increase awareness of the uniqueness and peculiarity in home modification.
- To understand the importance of making adequate precautions on structural modifications and prescribing assistive device.
- To develop liaison skills with government bodies and management companies.
- To appreciate relevant local and international standards.

Content

- Assessment of the client's needs and of the home environment and surroundings.
- Relevant legal and technical considerations.
- Skills in maintaining effective liaison with related stakeholders.
- Reports writing.
- Case sharing.
- Material consideration.

Speaker

Mr. Masco CHOW,

Experienced Occupational Therapist;
Guest lecturer of the SAHK Institute of Rehabilitation Practice

7 • November • 19
(Thu) 09:00 ~ 17:00

Community Support Service
Rm G1, G/F., Tung Wong House,
Tai Hang Tung Estate, Kowloon

Target participant: Occupational Therapists
Accreditations: CPD-OT: 6 points
Capacity: 50 participants

Course Fee

HKOTA Member	Non-HKOTA Member
$800	$1,200

*Included a FREE copy of "Guide to Home Modification, Occupational Therapy In Practice"